Places To Purchase Authorized Paint

The paint color descriptions are from Dunn-Edwards, but any brand paint may be used as long as it matches the approved colors. Lowes, Home Depot, or other paint resellers may or may not have this color in their system. This varies by location. You can bring in a paint chip or chunk of painted material (the size of a dime or larger) and they can scan it to get a color match. CALL IN ADVANCE and ask if they have the ability to scan paint chips. Some places do not have the equipment.
